

WEARCHECK ARC
ASSET RELIABILITY CARE

WE'RE HIRING

SOUTH AFRICA

BUILD YOUR CAREER IN MACHINERY RELIABILITY

Condition Monitoring Technicians.

ALL SKILL & QUALIFICATION LEVELS

WearCheck 's ARC division has vacancies across South Africa. From candidates entering the field to experienced technicians and advanced specialists, we welcome applications at every stage of a condition monitoring career.

YOUR FIELD OF WORK

- Vibration data collection and analysis
- Oil sampling and oil & fluid analysis
- Infrared thermography
- Ultrasound inspections
- Offline motor circuit analysis

SPECIALIST CAPABILITIES

- Alignment & balancing
- Operating Deflection Shape (ODS)
- Motion video amplification
- Modal analysis
- Root cause investigation (RCI)
- Transformer diagnostics

YOUR EXPERIENCE MATTERS

Relevant technical qualifications, trade backgrounds and condition monitoring certifications at any level are welcome.

Depending on your competency, work may include site surveys, reliable data collection, equipment condition assessment, fault investigation and clear maintenance recommendations.

Bring a practical mindset and attention to detail. We value safe working practices, accurate data, clear communication, teamwork and a willingness to learn.

Tell us which disciplines you know and your level of experience.

Emerson CSI/AMS 2140 & PeakVue experience is advantageous.

Tell us which technologies, instruments and software you have worked with.

APPLY TO JOIN WEARCHECK'S ARC DIVISION

Send your CV and relevant qualifications or certifications, where held.

SEND APPLICATIONS TO

rsvacancy@wearcheck.co.za

APPLICATIONS CLOSE

31 October 2026

Include your town and province, preferred work locations, willingness to travel or relocate, relevant experience, certification levels and availability or notice period.

Email subject: Condition Monitoring Technician - [Province] - [Your Name]